

Playmakers North is excited to announce we will be bringing top level individual skill sessions weekly, which will push player's games to the next level. Skills sessions will simply be better and more affordable than anywhere in our area. We have the best team of trainers and coaches assembled and we are excited to give our kids these great opportunities. SIGN UP TODAY- SPOTS ARE LIMITED and will be capped at 10!!!

-Check out our "SUPER TEAM"- BIOS

Coach Phil Homere- Phil brings great energy, experience, and passion to his work. Phil has coached at the high school, AAU, and collegiate level and was a standout player himself. Phil's workouts will emphasize shooting, ball handling, attacking the rim, being physically/mentally tough, and scoring in creative and effective ways.

Jake Smith- Jake is one of the best skill trainers around. He was one of Superior's best high school coaches and happens to be UW-Superior's all time leading scorer. Jake has worked high level camps for years and his training revolves around “attention to detail.” His workouts will empathize proper footwork, tight handles, proper court vision, attacking/finishing, and overall shooting.

Luke Salo-Salo’s SHOWCASE! Luke Salo has been a leader in individual skill work for years in the Twin Ports. Luke’s networking basketball connections are second to none and he demands the most out of his players. If you’d like additional opportunities to train with Luke-You can contact him through Salo’s Showcase-Facebook or Twitter Pages. Luke’s points of emphasis include finishing strong and creatively to the basket, being explosive, proper footwork, being a leader, shooting, tailoring player strengths, and working on their weaknesses.

Brooke Olson- Brooke was an all state player in high school and has built a tremendous D2 collegiate career. The daughter of a varsity coach, Brooke has spent years as a clinician in Rice Lake and other areas. She brings great energy, the will to compete, and will challenge your daughter in a great way. Points of Emphasis-Inside/Outside Scoring, ball handling, positioning, footwork/toughness, court awareness.

-Joe Schmitz Coach Schmitz. Joe was an all-state player himself in New Prague, and had a very strong career at Bethel University. Joe coached the Hermantown Boys to their 1st ever state appearance in 2015 and was named MN coach of the year. Joe is a great skill trainer whose points of emphasis include being an energy giver/leader, proper footwork, shooting form, ball handling, working on overall weaknesses and always competing to the highest degree.

-Kory Deadrick is a Current Playmakers North 17U Showcase coach and has previously coached at Denfeld, Proctor, and ESKO. Kory played for St. Thomas Unniversity and CSS after winning a state championship for Esko in his high school days. Kory has run high level camps and has been skill training for years. His points of Empasis include- scoring under pressure, playing through contact, bringing intensity, inside/outside shooting and demanding the best out of his players.

-Jordan Schneidermann has been UW-Superior's Top assistant coach the past four years. He has coached in Playmakers North for 3 seasons and also in the MN Heat program. Jordan brings a lot of positive energy along with recruitment connections to this group of trainers. His point of emphasis include-Post/Guard Work, scoring through contact, attacking from multiple positions on the court, communication, and scoring in tight spaces.

-Damian Paulson- Former UMD standout Damian Paulson has coached at both the high school and collegiate level for the past 20 years. Damian helped coached East to their 1st state appearance in quite awhile and his Noah was a top 10 finalist for Mr. Minnesota State Basketball. Damian is one of the best skill trainers in this area and his attention to inside scoring is 2nd to none! Points of emphasis: Will including Power Moves to the basket, Inside Post Moves, Finishing strong, playing through contact, shooting, ball handling, being a great all around player.

Playmakers North Director Coach Roe has been coaching in the Playmakers program the past eight years and started Playmakers North 4 years ago. As a Superior High School Coach, Roe had over 100 more wins than losses in his 12 years coaching, highlights include a 38 game win streak as Boys JV coach, leading the Spartan girls to back to back D1 state appearances including the school's 1st ever Final Four and Championship appearance, and coaching multiple scholarship athletes. Coach Roe's points of emphasis include inside/outside scoring, strong post moves, proper footwork communication, ball handling, shooting, and moving with/without the basketball.

Zach Otto led UW Superior to 3cstraight UMAC Championships, while being named UMAC Coach of the Year. Otto-Fisher was also a head coach for Playmakers North and Minnesota Fury in which he coached multiple scholarship athletes. Zach's points of emphasis include finishing around the rim, being creative with the ball, ball handling, communication, and proper footwork when shooting.

Tony Peterson- Coach Anthony Peterson was been coaching Playmakers North top Showcase team for the past 4 years. He also played collegiately for UW SUPERIOR and also has also coached for the Northwestern and Superior youth leagues. Coach Peterson brings a wealth of knowledge to the game and is great at paying attention to detail. His workouts will emphasize: Attacking the rim, taking proper angles, ball handling in tight spaces, passing/being a leader, and scoring from multiple locations.

Andy Schmitz is currently the Associate Head Coach at The College of St. Scholastica. He has worked extensively through the years training college athletes the past 13 years. He demands and gets the most out of his players but paying attention to details and positive energy. Points of Emphasis include ball Handling, Shooting, Decision Making, Game Actions, competitiveness.

